

DEVSOFT

DevSoft is a kickstart software development company seeking to create a more permanent web presence. The intent is to reach potential clients through providing information about the company, services provided and easy to identify and access contact information.

DevSoft will require semantic HTML mark up to create a responsive and accessible website.

Contact Form, with validation, required. When viewed on mobile, phone number should be clicked and brought up on mobile phone app.

Google Maps API for location

RESEARCH

- ➔ Lacks navigation
- ➔ Mood of site lacks professional appeal
- ➔ Contact goes to email app
- ➔ No form method available
- ➔ Mobile/responsive decisions are poor.
- ➔ Mobile content squished and not legible/hard to read.

- ➔ Offers a WIDE selection of services making navigation very overwhelming.
- ➔ Pop up for chat.
- ➔ Phone number at top, easily noticeable.
- ➔ Pop ups restrict view area of mobile website, making main content area small. Overwhelmed with animations.
- ➔ Overall poor mobile experience.

- ➔ A lot of Call To Action elements
- ➔ Not templated in appearance.
- ➔ Navigation not as overwhelming as Chetu.
- ➔ Stock image quality is poor.
- ➔ Excellent mobile.
- ➔ Easy to find Contact and Services information.
